

We need Aboriginal people to work with our young people.

Can you see yourself as a youth justice worker?

The Youth Justice Services division of the Department of Corrective Services is looking for Aboriginal people to work in our detention centre to help young people achieve better futures.

You will play a role in the transformation of Banksia Hill Detention Centre. You will help create an environment where young people are supported to lead productive, law-abiding lives and become culturally stronger.

We are now recruiting Youth Justice Workers, Youth Justice Leaders and Senior Youth Justice Workers. If you are interested in any of these roles and would like further information contact Geoff Griffiths on 9333 2209 or Mark Davis on 9333 2544 during business hours. Or go to our website at www.correctiveservices.wa.gov.au for information on how to apply.

Applications close
Monday 27 February 2017.

Government of Western Australia
Department of Corrective Services

Youth Justice Services

Young People at the centre of everything we do